Review Section

- Biblical joy, accompanied with God's calming presence, is the ability to see spiritual truths and eternal realities amid any situation.
- Paul made a conscious choice to be joyful.
- Paul put his confidence in God alone.
- Paul had companionship with other believers characterized by "Love" and "Forgiveness."
- Some things matter and some things don't!

Study Section – Philippians 1:11

Philippians 1:10–11, NLT <sup>-10</sup> For I want you to understand what really matters, so that you may live pure and blameless lives until the day of Christ's return.

<sup>11</sup> May you always be filled [lit., a continual filling (surrender)] with the fruit [rf., an outward evidence of an inward change; JOY and RIGHTEOUSNESS (in part) would be that fruit] Of your salvation—the righteous character produced [the word "produced" does not appear in the GK; it is implied because "Jesus Christ" is in the Genitive Case. This 'filling' comes from Jesus] in your life by Jesus Christ—for this will bring much glory and praise to God.

Fruitfulness • Filling • Focus (God's Glory)

Message Section

JOY In Spite of Troubled Times

Philippians 1:12-14

1. God's purposes are often accomplished through our problems.

Philippians 1:12, NLT <sup>-12</sup> And I want you to know, my dear brothers and sisters, that everything that has happened to me here has helped to spread the Good News.

In troubled times, don't complain about "What God did not do;"
Anticipate "What God is going to do."

2. God's purposes should always be our goal.

Philippians 1:13, NLT <sup>-13</sup> For everyone here, including the whole palace guard, knows that I am in chains because of Christ.

2 Timothy 2:9, ESV <sup>-9</sup> ...I am suffering, bound with chains as a criminal. But the word of God is not bound!

In troubled times, share Christ with the lost.

3. God's purposes should shine through every aspect of our lives.

Philippians 1:14, NLT <sup>-14</sup> And because of my imprisonment, most of the believers here have gained confidence and boldly speak God's message without fear.

In troubled times, seek to have the courage of other believers.
